Chesterfield County Public Schools to hold Kindergarten Resource Fair on May 2

Children across Chesterfield County registered for kindergarten last Thursday as part of the regional Kindergarten Registration Day. To help rising kindergartners and their parents get ready for the transition into school, Chesterfield County Public Schools and the Council on Family Engagement are hosting a Kindergarten Resource Fair on May 2 from 5:45-8 p.m. at Bird High, 10301 Courthouse Road.

From bus rides to wall words, starting kindergarten is a big step for parents and children. The Kindergarten Resource Fair will give parents an opportunity to check out vendors that will help make the transition a smooth one.

Several sessions will be offered in English and Spanish. A pizza dinner will be provided and limited childcare is available to children ages 3-10. Space is limited, so register here.

Residential Brush Pick-up schedule

Brandermill History Project Committee needs your help

The Brandermill History Project Committee plans to celebrate Brandermill’s unique history by publishing a book and possibly establishing a museum in the future. Our book project has made great progress, an author working on the text at this time, and we are ready to start collecting anecdotes from residents. We are particularly interested in hearing from early residents, those brave souls who moved out here in the mid-1970s and early 1980s, but all stories are welcome.

Fishing on the Reservoir

With such a beautiful amenity in our backyards, fishing is a favorite pass time and passion for many residents. Swift Creek Reservoir is governed by Virginia Game & Inland Fisheries (VDGIF.) Conservation officers regularly patrol the shores and waters. Fishing Licenses are required by all those fishing 16 years or older.

The quickest and easiest way to obtain a fishing license is to buy it online. Just select the license(s) you want, pay with your credit/debit card, and you're on your way. You print your licenses after you pay from your home printer, so there's no waiting. You can find more information on the VDGIF website.
